TOWN AND COUNTY.

BREVITIES.

Regular K. of P. meeting to-night.

There are more tourists reported at Tahoe this year than ever.

Nasby's thermometer at 7, 9, 11, 1, 3 and 5 was 60, 70, 83, 85, 81.

The east-bound overland was two hours and a half late yesterday morning.

G. R. Reed, of Johnson's printing int establishment, paid this office a visit yesterday.

John T. Raymond and troupe were passengers on the east-bound overland yesterday morning.

The weather has once more settled back into the old channel of Nevada climate—hot days, cool evenings.

A washout on the railroad about seven miles above Verdi, exposed a ledge which our prospectors are examining.

The open-air concert by the Reno Cornet Band will attract quite a crowd to Parry & Fitzgerald's "Oasis" to-night.

The member of the G. A. R. post here, are making arrangements to attend the encampment at San Francisco, next month.

The boys find solid comfort is disappearing themselves in the cooling waters of the beautiful Truckee these warm Summer days.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitthorne returned to the Pyramid Reservation yesterday morning, where they resume their duties as clerk and teacher respectively.

Senator and Mrs. Logan expected to leave Washington Thursday evening to attend the Grand Army reunion at San Francisco, stopping at Chicago en route.

Members of O. M. Mitchell Post, No. 69, G. A. R., are requested to attend their meeting to-morrow as business of importance will come before the Post regarding the G. A. R. Encampment.

Professor Tucker, of Chicago, will be here to attend the Teachers' Institute. Besides, it is expected that seven other Chicago teachers, several of whom are prominent institute instructors, will be present at least one day, and will participate in the institute proceedings.

D. L. Sayre, formerly connected with the International Live Stock Journal and Land and Mining Record, of El Paso, Texas, is in Reno with a view of establishing a stock paper either here or in the eastern part of the State. He says he like the looks of Reno very much.

A copy of the Tahoe Tatler, says the Truckee Republican, was issued in manuscript form, Tuesday. Mr. Felter is the editor in chief, with a large staff of assistants. Maj. Stonehill is business manager. It contains all the latest European news, the late proclamation of President Cleveland ordering Commodore Rodman to put the Tahoe navy on a war footing, preparatory for a war between the irrigationists and riparianists. It ridicules Gov. Stoneman's extraordinary session, and contains all the social and personal items of importance occurring in this vicinity. Subscribe for the Tatler.

The Truckee Republican says: An exhaustive and reliable guide book of Tahoe and vicinity is much needed. There are many places of interest besides the lake proper, which tourists should by all means visit. Chief among these are Rubicon Springs, Fallen Leaf Lake, Cascade Lake, Mount Tallac, Gillmore's Springs, Grass, Lilly, Susie, Eighty-four, Echo, Floating Island and other lakes. Woodburn's mill and fish pond, Echo, Lake and Strawberry Valleys; Carnelian and Emerald bays. Tourists who merely sail around the lake and think that they have seen it all, are greatly mistaken.

Post Meeting.—The members of O. M. Mitchell Post, No. 69, are requested to attend the meeting of the Post Saturday evening at the usual hour. By order of the P. C.

PRESS EXCURSIONISTS.—The following members of the Pacific Coast Press Association are at and about Lake Tahoe, enjoying themselves like school children out for a holiday. This force of intellect and brain power, will gambol on the hillsides for about ten days, and then return to their tripods to wield the scissors once more in making and unmaking States and Empires. They are: President William H. Barnes and wife, Secretary L. P. McCarty and wife, Robert White and wife, J. W. Rourke wife and daughter, Wm. T. Gallaway, J. A. Filcher, J. P. Bogardus, O. A. Dearing and wife, Jos. Winterburn wife and daughter, Carl Leichter and wife, Fred. Hess and wife, C. Newman and daughter, M. Shannon wife and daughter, T. K. Phillips, W. H. H. Tobey and wife, Walter N. Brunt, John G. Iis, E. J. Wickson and wife, G. G. Burnett and wife, T. J. Duffy, C. Buntshu and wife, Thomas Houseworth, W. R. Radcliffe, J. S. Manasco and wife, C. W. Waldron, Watson W. Toppin, Miss Alice Dyer, Jos. N. H. Irwin, Dr. M. H. Logan, Miss Genevieve Green, A. M. Benham and wife.

They represent the following papers: Weekly Call, Mountain Messenger, Daily Journal of Commerce, Placer Herald, Daily Figaro, Pacific Printer, California Staats Zeitung, Daily California Democrat, Commercial Herald, Fraternal Record, Pacific Churchman, Golden West, Millman and Mechanic, Pacific Rural Press, Architect and Builder, New Age, New York Music Trade, Circular, Weekly German Democrat, The Pajaronian, Santa Cruz Sentinel, Weekly Journal of Commerce, Daily Call, The West End, Colusa Sun, Postal Index, Annual Statistician.

FRANK LESLIE'S SUNDAY MAGAZINE FOR AUGUST.—Kilima-Njaro, the recently discovered monarch of African Mountains, is the subject of the opening paper in Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine for August. It is finely illustrated. An article on Turner, the great English painter, is accompanied by his portrait and reproductions of some of his works, including the famous "Slave Ship." Two beautiful pictures of "Tobias" and the "Archangel Raphael" from last year's Paris Salon accompany the text of the dramatic poem used by Gounod in his Oratorio "Tobie," and a narrative of the Book of Tobit in the Apocrypha. Mr. Thomas Powell begins "Leaves from Life," with anecdotes and personal conversation about and with Charles Lamb and Samuel Taylor Coleridge. Musical readers will be interested in the picture of the new organ in the Cathedral at Riga, Russia, the largest in the world, and the very full description accompanying it. "Guilds of New York City," by F. S., is a valuable contribution relating to the benevolent activities of the Episcopal Church in that city. "A Curious Conversation" is indeed a curious story, the scene being laid at Oxford, England. The serial story, "The Gems She Wore," begins to get exciting. "Dilettante Days" carries the reader to Switzerland and "The Tapestry Room" tells about the Brown Bull of Norrowa. There are portraits of Dr. Dio Lewis, Archbishop Knox, the new Primate of Ireland, the late Rabbi Isidor Kalisch, and the four new Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. There are many beautiful pictures, and the usual complement of short articles and poems.

MORE MACHINERY.—Two more carloads of machinery for Meadow Lake, came up Monday, and will be hauled out to that district at once, says the Truckee Republican. In the lot is included a sixty-horse power engine and boiler, a large rotary ore roaster about twelve feet long, several pans and settlers, a copper-lined tub for amalgamating purposes, and a lot of shafts, pulleys, etc. It is designed to erect a mill at once, and lumber is being procured in Sierra Valley. The ore will be taken from the Excelsior ledge, owned by S. S. Hartley. It will be seen from all this that something important is about to be undertaken. The process to be used is said to be a new one, and promises success.

RENO GUARDS ATTENTION!—The members of Reno Guards, Co. C., N. N. G., are ordered to appear at their Armory, this evening at 8 o'clock. By order of J. F. ALEXANDER, Captain. W. W. WEBSTER, Jr., O. S.

PRAISE FROM SIR HUBERT.—The most proper newspaper in the "Garden City" is the Chicago Evening Journal. It is "goody goody," and when it indorses a circus there must be merit to back it. The standard sheet is as reliable as it is staid. It comments:

"The Sells Brothers, who have had the good fortune to be first on the Lake Front this season, are to be congratulated in presenting a show that corresponds with the announcements. They don't beguile the people with pretentious advertisements of wonders that have never materialized, and they really produce what they claim. This is almost too much to say of a circus, and it will hardly be credited, but a candid examination of this menagerie and ring brings the truth-loving reporter to the confession that sobriety of statement is mighty and is prevailing all over Barnum's adjectives. The immense canvases that parasoled the Lake Frontground yesterday afternoon and evening covered a countless multitude of happy faces, all bright with enthusiasm over the sights and performances."

Sells will exhibit in Reno, Wednesday, August 4th. For full particulars see small bills. Don't forget to take the children, and if you haven't any borrow the neighbors'.

HAVING A GOOD TIME.—Bradley, the locator of the famous Lapanta mine, Hawthorne District, is evidently enjoying himself in San Francisco. The Daily Report says: J. T. Bradley, the miner, and Jennie Westmore, with whom he had been on a spree for several days, fought on the street last night, and were arrested. Bradley had a bank book showing that he had drawn $1,000 within a few days, and had still $13,000 to his credit.

RETURN OF ROSA THOMAS.—As stated in Wednesday's Enterprise, Rosa Thomas, the alleged victim of incest, was arrested Tuesday by Officer Dan Sheehan at Melrose, near Oakland, Cal. The officer arrived in Virginia Wednesday morning, and she is now held in custody of the Sheriff at the Grand Jury rooms, in the Court-house, in care of Mrs. George, her grandmother, with bonds fixed at $1,500.

NEW SALOON.—Howard & O'Neil have fitted up the Marshall building, between the White House clothing store and the Wine House, in fine style for their new saloon, which will be known as the "Commercial." They will be ready for business on Saturday evening, when they will be glad to see their friends, and everybody else who want a good drink of any kind or a good cigar.

FINE PROSPECTS.—A letter from Mr. Howell of the smelting works, was received yesterday morning. He says they are well pleased with the prospects, and that he and Mr. Carey will be in Reno in a few days. A telegram from Mr. Carter was received Wednesday which said that he, too, was satisfied with the outlook and would be in Reno inside of a month.
